MUNICIPAL NEWS

Some Items of Interest From the Public Offices About Occurrences of the Week.

If the city council acts favorably on a resolution introduced at Monday night's meeting adequate facilities for the inspection of city supplies and increased powers for the city's purchasing agent in buying commodities will be brought about.

The resolution, offered by Alderman Mayer, set forth that because of the present limitation of $500 placed on the purchasing agent for the buying without advertising of department supplies the city does not get fair value for its money so expended. The lack of proper inspection also is pointed out.

The council also: Concurred in Mayor Harrison's appointment of a committee of aldermen and citizens for the conservation of residential districts from factory encroachment.

Referred to the license committee an ordinance directing that beer shall not be sold in barrels of less than thirty-one gallons capacity.

Referred to the finance committee a communication from H. L. Bailey, warden of the county hospital, calling attention to the overcrowded condition of the contagious ward of the hospital.

Passed an ordinance giving the city the right to regulate lumber yards within the fire limits.

Through routes of surface car lines were discussed on Monday at a meeting of a sub-committee of the council local transportation committee. Many of the present through routes, the sub-committee declared, are not up to the required efficiency. It is probable that many recommendations for changes will be made by the sub-committee when its work has been finished.

Cook County officials and officers of the Chicago bureau of public efficiency met on Monday at a luncheon at the Union League club arranged as a love feast by Judge Jesse A. Baldwin of the Circuit court.

Judge Baldwin was one of the judges who came in for censure at the hands of the public efficiency men recently when suggestions as to numbers of employees needed in county fee officers were disregarded. The luncheon was designed as an answer to those criticisms.

The question of public efficiency was discussed from all sides, everybody agreeing on its desirability and differing only as to how it was to be effected. Those present were Judges Baldwin, Walker and F. A. Smith, Sheriff Michael Zimmer, Charles W. Vall, clerk of the Superior Court; William L. O'Connell, county treasurer; Peter Hoffman, coroner; Robert M. Sweitzer, county clerk; Abel Davis, recorder; John A. Cervenka, clerk of the Probate Court; Joseph E. Bidwill, Jr., clerk of the Circuit Court; George C. Sikes, Julius Rosenwald, A. L. Baker, Charles W. Merriam, Onward Bates, Harris S. Keeler and Henry B. Favill of the bureau of public efficiency.
